2 Benefits of Diversity

2.1 Workplace diversity refers to the variety of differences between people in an organisation. Diversity encompasses gender, race, ethnicity, age, disability, cultural background and more.

2.2 The Company believes that embracing diversity in our workforce contributes to the achievement of our corporate objectives and enhances our reputation. It enables the Group to:

- (a) recruit and promote the right people from a diverse pool of talented candidates;
- (b) make more informed and innovative decisions, drawing on the wide range of ideas, experiences, approaches and perspectives that employees from diverse backgrounds, and with differing skill sets, bring to their roles; and
- (c) better represent the diversity of all our stakeholders.

3 Commitment to Diversity

3.1 The Group is committed to achieving the goals of:

- (a) providing access to equal opportunities at work based on merit; and
- (b) fostering a corporate culture that embraces and values diversity.

3.2 The Company is an equal opportunity employer and welcomes people from a diverse set of backgrounds.

4 Objectives for Achieving Gender Diversity

4.1 The Board intends to:

- (a) establish measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity; and
- (b) where such measurable objectives have been established, then review and assess, at least annually, both the measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity and the Company’s progress in achieving them.

4.2 Where any such measurable objectives have been established by the Board, then the Board will disclose in the Annual Report for each relevant financial year both its objectives for achieving gender diversity and its progress in achieving those objectives (as appropriate).

5 Support for Gender Diversity

- 5.1 Currently, there are several different policies, programs and initiatives operating across the Group, which recognise and support gender diversity. These may be summarised as follows:
- (a) Policies: the Company has formal policies regarding unlawful discrimination and raising and escalating grievances and these policies are available to employees via the employee handbook.
 - (b) Flexible work practices: the Company is a strong advocate of flexible work practices where this is possible given the operational requirements of the business. At any given time, the Group has a number of staff working on a part-time basis following return to work from parental leave and the Company continues to support this policy. In addition, the Company is flexible in its response to requests for flexibility in working hours and extended leave without pay to assist employees to manage work and family responsibilities.
 - (c) Parental leave programs: The Group provides paid parental leave for eligible employees. All paid parental leave is in addition to statutory requirements and is available also in the case of adoption.
 - (d) Other policies and HR support channels: The Group has policies to assist in performance-based progression and reward. There are also policies and support provided to assist employees to manage their work and family or community responsibilities.
